

Academic Integrity Pledge

Student Name: _____

Date: _____

Academic integrity arises from a system of shared values and responsibilities. The ability of Georgian College to achieve its mission of exceptional teaching and learning, maintain the credibility of its credentials, and uphold the rights of honest students, depends on communities of integrity<sup>1</sup>.

As a Georgian@ILAC student, I acknowledge that Georgian College has Academic Regulations, and that I am responsible for reading and adhering to these guidelines<sup>2</sup>.

Student
initials

For assignments such as papers and presentations, this means demonstrating that I can understand the ideas of others and properly credit them, and that I can demonstrate that I can use their ideas, research, and concepts to generate my own conclusions.

Student
initials

For evaluations such as exams and quizzes, this means adhering to instructions about what materials I may or may not access.

Student
initials

As a Georgian@ILAC student engaged in work-integrated learning (co-op, clinical, field placement, or internship), I will follow the standards for appropriate behavior that are required by the college, and my workplace or industry. I acknowledge that all aspects of academic integrity apply to work term documents and processes.

Student
initials

Resources for Students

APA \(7th ed.\) Citing guide

Writing centre

Study skills

Doing Research

Math Centre

Library and Academic Success

---

<sup>1</sup> The International Center for Academic Integrity (ICAI) defines academic integrity as “a commitment to five fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility... plus the courage to act on them even in the face of adversity.” (Fishman, 2014)

<sup>2</sup> <https://www.georgiancollege.ca/admissions/academic-regulations/>